Patalganga Campus

Road Ahead

NISM has initiated the construction of its state-of-the-art campus at Patalganga on the Mumbai-Pune Express Highway. Hon'ble Prime Minister of India Dr. Manmohan Singh unveiled the Commemorative Plaque symbolizing the commencement of construction of the campus at Patalganga on May 24th of 2013. The campus with the total capacity to cater to 1000 students at a time is expected to be functional in mid 2016. The campus, once functional, will reinforce NISM's goal to expand its horizons and channel the attention of students from the Asia-Pacific / ASEAN region towards the various full-time and part-time courses on offer at NISM.

NISM has entered into collaborations with international organizations to further its aspiration of becoming the leading capital markets education and training provider in Asia-Pacific / ASEAN. NISM's MoU with Securities Industry Development Corporation (SIDC), Malaysia in October, 2013 is the latest development which will advance NISM's aspiration to become a leading player in the knowledge dissemination and skills enhancement initiatives within the securities markets of emerging economies.
